Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.1317/ M.104-21-15 dated the 30th August 1921, enquiring what the sacred are, for the conduct of which the interest derived from the contributions amounting to Rs. 1,000 paid by the villagers, is proposed to be utilised in the Sri Kirtha Narayanaswami Temple at Talkad, T. Narasipur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Amildar proposes that the marginally noted three Sevas may be conducted every year at a total cost of Rs.40/- as desired by the villagers and Dharmadarsis of the Temple. The Sub Division Officer recommends the Amildar's proposals and I agree with him. Sanction of Government may therefore be obtained in the matter. I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

For Deputy Commissioner,
